November Newsletter 2018 VICAM is Thankful for You All!

Spooky season is ending, the temperature is dropping – except in San Diego – and people are prematurely setting up their Christmas trees. It's finally November. But you know what that means...Turkey Day!

USD VICAM is thankful for our alumni near and far who keep in touch and keep us updated on all the wonders of the outside world!

Brief writing will continue to be in full force this month. If you're interested in volunteering as a brief editor for November and January, please email usdvicam@gmail.com.

November Spotlight

Meet Ms. Michelle Propst, a graduate from the University of California, Irvine who currently serves as the Co-Chair of Fundraising for VICAM and is an Articles Editor for the Journal of Climate and Energy Law.

Michelle isn't just the epitome of the stylish dog mom but also one of the nicest and most down-to-earth people around. On the weekends, Michelle can be found heading to Balboa Park or to Fiesta Island, with her puppy Lucy in tow. Michelle is a true dog momager and her side hustles include booking Lucy modeling appearances. You can find Lucy's Instagram at @lucy.tails.

Fun Fact: Michelle and Lucy have appeared together in multiple advertising campaigns for Petco.
